PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Software Developer   DevPro Software Consulting • Dec 2020 - Mar 2024

Previously operating as Vivvo's software consulting division, DevPro is responsible for fulfilling development contracts for external clients, such as those in the financial sector. As a developer consultant I have:

- Implemented UI features using Angular and developed corresponding REST APIs using Spring Boot Java for use by thousands of customers and internal users
- Leveraged clean and user-friendly UI component design
- Enhanced and expanded component library for use in existing and future projects
- Decomposed a large monolith into SaaS microservices generating over $300 million in revenue per quarter
- Collaborated with various agile teams to support and enhance microservices and web apps
- Regularly managed monthly releases for my agile team, ensuring timely delivery of features

Software Developer   Vivvo Application Studios • Feb 2020 - Nov 2020

Worked as a developer under Vivvo's software consulting division, which was responsible for fulfilling development contracts for external clients. As a developer consultant I have:

- Utilized HTML/JS/CSS (Angular/AngularJS) to create new and enhance existing UI experiences
- Integrated Angular front-end features with existing REST APIs provided by the client
- Collaborated with multiple teams to design and test UI features on their respective projects
- Participated in regular code reviews with my team lead/delivery manager
- Followed industry and company best practices
- Learned 3 new technologies

Sales Representative   Telus Communications • July 2017 - Feb 2020

- Provided customers with mobile phone solutions and other digital life devices/accessories
- Advocated for customers' needs while creating a personalized shopping experience
- Leveraged clear communication skills to proactively adapt to changing needs of customers
